INCENSED AT WIFE IRATE HUBBY SHOTS

Teresa Sutton Shot By William Sutton Will Recover

BAIL OF $500 GIVEN

Following His Arraignment in Court Today Sutton Held For Grand Jury—Wife Sustains Only Scalp Wound

William Sutton, thirty-six years old a boilermaker employed at the plant of the Virginia Shipbuilding Corporation, who shot his wife shortly after 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon at their home, 683 South Patrick street, in the police court this morning was held for the action of the grand jury and released in bond in the sum of $500 for his appearance. The case was called before Justice Louis N. Duffey and Attorney Charles Henry Smith appeared for the accused and Commonwealth's attorney Howard W. Smith for the state. Sutton was not placed on the stand.

The bullet fired by Sutton at his wife inflicted a scalp wound. His wife, Teresa Sutton, twenty-three years old, has been married nine years and the couple have three children, two boys and a girl. Sutton told the police that domestic infelicity was responsible for the shooting.

His wife he said was next door in a neighbor's house when he returned from work and supper had not been prepared. She refused to go into their home and cook for him he said. He went to the police and made complaint. The police took in custody three white men who were in the house adjoining, including the head of the house. The shooting followed a few minutes afterward in the yard of their residence.

The woman was placed in an ambulance and taken to the Alexandria Hospital and her wound treated by Dr. S. B. Moore. It is expected that she will be able to leave that institution in the next day or so.

Immediately after the shooting Sutton was taken in custody by Sgt. Campbell who told the court that when he arrived Sutton had the weapon to his head. Witness said Sutton told him he "couldn't help it" and remarked with the weapon to his head, "Here Goes."

Three white men arrested a short time before the shooting who were taken from the house adjoining Sutton's were arraigned and acquitted. The police produced two empty three ounce lemon extract bottles found on the table in the house. It also was testified that the two men who did not live at the house had been frequent visitors to the place.

All of Old Officers Re-Elected—Mayor in Address Asks Co-Operation of Citizens.

With the induction into office of James M. Duncan as mayor and the newly elected members of common council and board of aldermen shortly after the noon hour today the new form of city government became operative.

The ceremony of inducting the new mayor into office took place in the chamber of common council and the ceremony was attended by a large gathering of friends of the new mayor, including most of the city officials.

The table in the council chamber was graced with two handsome baskets of flowers for the new mayor. One bore a card marked "Friend—Congratulations" and on another was a card on which was inscribed "Our Mayor" wishing him every success, signed T. M. Dunbar.

The mayor was sworn in at a joint session, this ceremony taking place immediately following the organization of both branches of city

On this committee the chair named Councilman Lawler, Aldermen Wilkins and Councilman Devers. The new mayor accompanied by Thomas A. Fisher, the retiring mayor, then entered the chamber and Mayor Fisher told the members of council that it afforded him great pleasure to present the mayor-elect, James M. Mayor Duncan told council he was not a speechmaker and added that he would read his inaugural address which he had prepared. At the conclusion of his address the flowers sent him were presented.

The Council before adjourning adopted a resolution appropriating $1,000 to meet sundry expenses for the fire department. The first business session of common council will be held Sept. 14 at which time the committee appointments will be announced. Mayor's Address

Mr. President and Gentlemen of the City Council:

COX TO CONFER WITH POMERENE

To Settle Question of His Giving Evidence Before Senate Committee

$4,941,500 ADMITTED

Figures Disagree With Hays—Britten Fails to Make Good Charge—Committee Undecided.

Chicago, Sept. 1.—Senator Pomerene, one of the Democratic members of the Senate Committee Investigating Campaign Funds, left for Columbus today, immediately after the hearing closed, to consult with Governor Cox.

His trip was made at the request of the Governor, and upon the result of the conference will depend the decision of the Presidential candidate regarding his appearance before the committee.

The committee has not yet decided whether it will invite Governor Cox to bring forward such additional proofs as he may have in support of the charges made by him. A decision was expected tonight, but the committee thought it best to wait until several other witnesses which it had summoned should testify.

The difference between a "quota" and the "estimate" in the Republican National Committee was the point at issue in today's hearing.

National Chairman Hays, who appeared before the Senate committee, denied that any quota has been prepared by his organization for the guidance of leaders in raising money in the various States.

Fred Upham, treasurer of the Republican National Committee, today submitted to the Senate Committee a document which he describes as a "table showing quotas as assigned to the several States early in 1919 for national committee purposes."

This table showed that the various States were asked to provide a fund totaling $4,941,500 and that up to August 26 of the present year $978,878 had been received.

Incidentally, the Republican campaign fund went up by several hundred thousand today, while Upham was on the witness stand.

Flatly disagreeing with National Chairman Hays, Upham admitted that the budget of $3,079,000, prepared by Hays to provide for all expenses of the Presidential campaign did not include $500,000 to be given the National Congressional Committee and $200,000 to the National Senatorial Committee, which are engaged in directing the contests of their party candidates for the two houses of the national legislature.

Robbed Of $12,000

Maj. Green, of Marine Corps, Knocked Senseless at Quantic Home

Investigation was being made yesterday at the marine post at Quantico, Va., of the theft of $12,000 in post exchange funds following an assault on Major Henry S. Green post exchange officer, while on his way Monday afternoon to deposit $15,000 in cash and checks in a Fredericksburg bank. Secret service men are working on the case, but no clue to the robber has been obtained.

Major General Smedley Butler, commandant of the post, declared last night that there is no doubt in the minds of officers and detectives who are working on the case that the robbery was committed by a civilian. Many civilians are employed in the post and others also have easy access to it.

Major Green, with a bag containing the $15,000 of the exchange funds, started for the bank, and on his way went to his house on the post to change his clothes. As he was passing through one of the rooms a man jumped from a closet and struck him on the head. He lay on the floor unconscious for some time after the assault. When he regained consciousness he discovered that his bag had been opened and $12,000 of the $15,000, mostly in checks, had been removed.

NEED $400 MORE Necessary to Provide Equipment For Parker-Gray Public School

The time is near for the beginning of session 1920-1921 in our new school building and the Snowden School Alumni Association has far from the amount needed to supply the real needs for the opening which is about $400.

The chairs for the main floor of the auditorium will be procured as they are ordered and expected shortly, but we urgently request those who have not given something, please send us your contribution at your earliest convenience.

The room for temporary treatment of ill pupils or teachers needs a cot, a table, several chairs and a medicine cabinet filled with first aid remedies. The stage in the auditorium should and must have a suitable table and some heavy substantial chairs.

We desire to furnish the above mentioned articles and if you will send in your mite, we can have every thing arranged nicely.

We have written appeals to about four hundred Alexandrians and one hundred and forty have responded. Will you, who have not given, help also?

HUSBAND-TO-BE LASHED BY MOTHER OF GIRL

Chicago, Sept. 1.—A horse whipping at the hands of his prospective mother-in-law, and being arrested failed to stop Harry R. Daniels, 39 years old, secretary of S. W. Straus & Company, New York, from marrying Sarah Frances Cooper, 20, of Indianapolis, here this afternoon.

The lashing took place at the Union Station and hundreds of passengers watched the unusual sight. Daniel who formerly was city editor of the Inter-Ocean, was waiting at the station for Miss Cooper to arrive from Indianapolis. Miss Cooper kissed Daniels once and would have repeated the performance but her mother beat her to it. Mrs. Cooper who had been watching from a secluded spot rushed forth, and drawing a "black snake" whip from under her coat slashed Daniels across the face. Before any one could interfere she slashed the former newspaper man again and again across the face. Sergeant Kelly, of the Detective Bureau who rushed in to save the prospective bridegroom also received several well aimed blows across the face before he could get the whip away from Mrs. Cooper.

Kelly took the trio to the police station. After the affair had been explained to the Lieutenant, and Miss Cooper had informed him that she loved Daniels they were turned loose. Daniels and Miss Cooper then dashed to the county building where they obtained a marriage license. Mrs. Cooper who gave her address as North Meridian street, Indianapolis, left on an evening train for home. She declared before leaving that her daughter would be disinherited.

RULES FOR WOMEN WHO SEEK BALLOT

Must Be Twenty-One and Pay and Register by October 2.

NECESSARY TO WRITE

Registrant Must Answer Any Question Submitted Under Oath—Registrar May Then Register

The Amendment to the Federal Constitution having been ratified, the statute enacted at the last session of the General Assembly of Virginia is now in effect.

Under that statute women are entitled to vote subject to the provisions of the statute, the most important of which are in substance as follows:

A woman twenty-one years of age who has been a resident of the state two years, of the county, city or town one year, and of the precinct thirty days next preceding the election, will be entitled to vote. If she has registered and paid a poll tax of one dollar and fifty cents. The election occurs on Tuesday, November 2nd, and the poll tax must be paid to the treasurer at least thirty days preceding the election.

Having paid the poll tax she must register. Unless physically unable she must make application to register in her own writing, without aid, suggestion or memorandum, in the presence of the registration officer, stating therein her name, age, date and place of birth, residence and occupation at the time and for two years next preceding and whether she has previously voted, and, if so, the state, county, and precinct in which she voted last; and answer on oath any questions affecting her qualifications as an elector, submitted to her by the officer of registration. The registrar being satisfied of her qualifications, as stated, will administer the oath and thereupon register her. As the statute specifies that the general law concerning registration shall be complied with, so far as not in conflict therewith, the application to register must be made at least thirty days previous to the election. Each registrant is required to advertise a date (thirty days prior to the election) when he will register, but also on any day previous to that date he will consider applications.

"DREAMS"—AND CASH!

"The chief stumbling block for Mr. Cox in his remarkable financial charges," says Mr. Upham, the genial, able and astute Republican Treasurer, "is that the man does not know the difference between a quota and a budget. A quota is a dream, a rosate estimate handed to various leaders. Nobody expects to get the quota. The idea of quotas originated during the war. War workers went after war workers. They followed the same idea in figuring out money to be raised for the campaign."

All of the big war drives for money were made by quotas. In all the full amounts of money sought were raised. Was that "dream money?"

Mr. Cox said nothing about "budgets" in his Pittsburgh speech. He said that the "money-digging" drive of the Republicans was scheduled on quotas specifying the quotas that had been assigned to a given number of cities. Mr. Upham admits a campaign of quotas, but says quotas are not budgets; they are "dream money" and he has no hope of collecting them in full.

But his Official Bulletin tells a different story. Mr. Cox read quotation after quotation from it showing that Mr. Upham's money diggers were making great headway. In numerous instances having already gone "over the top."

Many of these quotas which have proved such "pay dirt" are not included in the list of cities which Governor Cox read. Thus the Bulletin says that Chattanooga has over-subscribed its quota. Mr. Blair, one of Mr. Upham's assistants, telegraphs the Bulletin.

"Why not urge the rest of the United States to emulate the example of Arkansas, Louisiana, Georgia and North Carolina, which are all over the top," North Carolina went over July 27 and the end is not yet."

The Bulletin reports fine progress in Michigan and Wisconsin. Kenosha having raised its full quota and not a day having passed since the National Convention that Wisconsin has not turned in substantial sums. "Remarkable results," are recorded for Arizona; Florida is eager to help "pay the freight." Maine's quotas had been over-subscribed by $5,000 August 15. New Hampshire's quota was nearly completed at last reports; Colorado's quota is guaranteed by September 1, the Northern counties having practically tied the mark; a bunch of Cincinnati business men have "underwritten" that city's quota for delivery by September 1; by that date Columbus is promised to go $50,000 over its quota; while the Bulletin as long ago as August 10 announced that "metropolitan Boston will contribute more than 250 per cent of its original quota, which would turn the Boston fund from $300,000 to $750,000."

Brer Upham should have a care—or a whole flock of crows, else some blooming "peepie" will accuse him of building a "dream" defense around "dream" money.

Who Will Look After The Public?

One thing on which the Anthracite Commission insists in its report to the President is that the increase in miners' wages offers no justification for any advance in the retail prices of hard coal.

This declaration is as much a part of the report of the commission as any of its other findings. The award to the miners is more pay. The award to the public is that it must not be made to pay more. That is clear beyond dispute. The practical question is, shall one part of this award be enforced and the other nullified?

The same thing was said with regard to soft coal prices when that controversy was "settled," and we know what happened. Will we have the same flagrant disregard in this instance of the rights of the consumer?

What does it profit the public to have a representative of a commission of this sort if there is no one to see that the coal operators and the coal dealers live up to the award—if the public is to be thrown to the lions of profiteering and greed?

The public is left naked and helpless to the wolves, and there is no one to protect it except a noisy hound dog that barks continuously, but never bites. The man who can put into effect this protective feature of the Anthracite Commission's report in favor of the consumer will be the most popular fellow between New York and Washington.

CORK LORD MAYOR SLIGHTLY BETTER

London, Sept. 1.—Terence MacSwiney, lord mayor of Cork, who is in Brixton prison in a critical condition as a result of his hunger strike, passed a slightly better day Tuesday. There was little change, except that the prisoner has developed symptoms of neuritis in the arms.

Mrs. MacSwiney remained at her husband's bedside last night.

An official who saw MacSwiney early today described his condition as being like that of a "man on apple-pie," adding that "the slightest breeze might blow him over at any time."

Cork, Sept. 1.—Several of the hunger striking prisoners in the Cork jail are declared to be at the point of death. Today the hunger strikers received the following message from Lord Mayor MacSwiney:

thinking of them always and praying heartily for their welfare."

Belfast, Sept. 1.—Sir James Long, chairman of the Cork harbor commission and member of the governing body of University College, Cork, has sent the following telegram to King George at Buckingham Palace:

"As a protest against the treatment meted out to the lord mayor of Cork and his fellow hunger strikers by your majesty's government, I would respectfully ask that your majesty withhold the title conferred on me in 1910."

Baron Stamfordham, private secretary to the king, replied that the matter was one for the attention of the premier, to whom the question had been referred.

MINERS QUIT WORK

Strikes Called Already Affecting Over 15,000 Men in State

Phil., Sept. 1.—With the hard coal miners meeting at Wilkes-Barre and Hazleton, Pa., yesterday to consider the coal award and the President's refusal to intervene, strikes have already been called at several points. At Shamokin more than 1000 miners walked out yesterday, and last night delegates representing 10,000 workers voted for a strike beginning today.

Cork, Sept. 1.—Several of the hunger striking prisoners in the Cork jail are declared to be at the point of death. Today the hunger strikers received the following message from Lord Mayor MacSwiney:

"So lucrative has become the bootlegging industry in the United States that experienced criminals are forsaking their former lines of adventure and engaging in the illicit liquor traffic, officials of the Internal Revenue Bureau announce. Bootlegging has become more profitable than safe-cracking. It pays larger dividends than forgery or "stick-up" work.

As a result, men who were formerly engaged in the hazardous business of safe blowing, picking pockets, or operating confidence games, are taking to bootlegging on a large scale.

Other criminals who are versed in the methods of criminal organization are responsible for the formation of the so-called "whisky rings" in the large cities, which have brought about the corruption of prohibition enforcement agents.

Revenue officials complain that one of the most difficult aspects of the situation is that the public generally appears to have little or no prejudice against violators of the prohibition law.

Many communities, they claim, openly wink at the offenders.

EVICTED WIDOW IS RESCUED WHEN CROWD CHIPS IN $100

New York, Sept. 1.—A crowd of 100 Brooklynites walking long distances home because of the B. R. T. strike were not too tired today to help save Mrs. Bertha Schettel, a widow, who returned from work to her home, 881 Flatbush avenue, to find a city marshal had thrown her goods into the street on a dispossession order.

Mrs. Schettel, sat down on the edge of the parlor furniture and cried. One of the homing thousands—he carried a dinner pail and wore laborer's clothes—stopped with many others to listen to the story.

"I'll chip in a dollar to help this woman find a home," he proclaimed and took off his hat and passed it around. Mrs. Schettel's three children, who had taken refuge with neighbors, reappeared. When the proceeds were counted it was found that $100 had been raised.

The steward of the Union League Club in Flatbush offered the widow the use of the sub-basement in which to store the furniture for the night. Volunteers helped him to carry it to the club. Mrs. Schettel thanked every one and took her children to friends for the night.

Mother and child went to the woods Mary played about as the mother chopped and hacked at the butt of a ten-inch tree. When the tree started to topple the mother screamed to the child, but it was too late, for little Mary was directly under it.

The steward of the Union League Club in Flatbush offered the widow the use of the sub-basement in which to store the furniture for the night. Volunteers helped him to carry it to the club. Mrs. Schettel thanked every one and took her children to friends for the night.

MOTHER SEES CHILD DIE UNDER TREE SHE FELLED

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Sept. 1.—Mary Gushner, age 7 years, was crushed to death under a tree which her mother Mrs. Philip Gushner, chopped down for family firewood today.

Mother and child went to the woods Mary played about as the mother chopped and hacked at the butt of a ten-inch tree. When the tree started to topple the mother screamed to the child, but it was too late, for little Mary was directly under it.

4,000,000 PEOPLE

Annually use these tablets of organic iron—Nuxated Iron—to build up red blood, strength and endurance.

Dr. H. B. Vail, formerly Physician in the Baltimore Hospital and a Medical Examiner says: "There are thousands whose bodies are stinging and breaking down at a time when they should be enjoying that perfect health which carries defiance to disease simply because they are not aware of the condition of their blood. By allowing it to remain thin, pale and watery, they are not giving the natural life forces of the body a chance to do their work. Iron is red blood food and in my experience I have found no better means for building the red blood corpuscles and helping to give increased power to the blood than organic iron—Nuxated Iron." Nuxated Iron comes in tablet form only and does not contain any ordinary metallic iron but only the finest quality of pre-digested organic iron which is easily assimilated by the blood.

MUSIC DROWNS MURDER THUDS

Bridgeport Autopsy Said to Have Fathomed Mystery

Bridgeport, Conn., Sept. 1.—Who killed George E. Nott—his wife or his wife's lover, Elwood B. Wade? Nott's body was found packed in a trunk, bearing his wife's name, slowly sinking into quicksand near here. Bloodstained curtains, towels, underclothing and a bloody lead pipe were found in the trunk.

Wade is under arrest, charged with murder. The police assert they have his confession. Mrs. Nott is also held. Wade's friend, John Johnson, is also in custody. Police Superintendent Patrick J. Flanagan, states positively that he knows that the bullet which killed Nott was fired by his wife.

The story of what happened is a patchwork of uncertainties, but as it stands today it concerns the triangle of Wade, Mr. and Mrs. Nott. Wade, it is said, has been paying marked court to Mrs. Nott for the past three years. Wade is 23 and the son of a wealthy dairyman. Nott objected and spoke about it to his wife, threatening the lover with a thrashing.

Sunday morning Nott arrived at his home, accused his wife again and on receiving a distasteful retort struck her down, and kicked her. She went to the phone and told Wade Wade arrived shortly bringing his friend John Johnson along.

Wade is said to have struck Nott with a lead pipe, then turned him on his stomach and jumped up and down on his back, stabbing him as he did so. Then he jumped off the bed and emptied the chamber of his revolver into the senseless body. This is the course of events in the Nott household, according to the local police. While the body was being jammed into the trunk, the pianola was set pumping out music, and it played all afternoon.

The room in which the murder took place was cleaned and the trunk shut ready for transportation.

The unseemly Sabbath music aroused curiosity and at length brought a bosom friend of the Notts to the door. He was met by Mrs. Nott and she took him about the house, past the trunk containing her murdered husband, and past the closet where Wade crouched in hiding.

Feels Better Than She Ever Expected

Petersburg Woman Would Like to Tell the World How Tanlac Helped Her

"I feel just like a different person since I started taking Tanlac, and would be glad to tell the whole world what it has done for me," said Mrs. S. A. Harris, 111 North Dunlop street, Petersburg, Va.

"For five years," continued Mrs. Harris, "I had suffered from indigestion. My appetite would come and go—One day eating heartily and next unable to eat a thing. But I was actually better off when I did not eat, for everything I ate disagreed with me. After every meal I would feel all stuffed up and have such intense pains around my heart and in my chest I could hardly breathe, and I could not get a long breath at all. I had severe headaches, and at times became so dizzy I could scarcely stand up. I was so nervous I could not sit still a minute, and slept very little, and when I did manage to doze off I had such horrible dreams that often I would wake up almost frightened to death and my heart beating like it would jump out of my body. I also suffered terribly with rheumatism in my knees, which pained me so I could hardly walk and at times I got past going at all."

"My husband had been taking Tanlac with fine results and advised me to try it. Well, I took his advice and am glad to say I feel better today than I ever expected to feel again in my life. I eat heartily every day and never have a sign of indigestion; I never have that stuffy feeling any more nor any trouble in breathing. I have not had a headache or dizzy spell since I started taking Tanlac; I sleep well without having bad dreams and always get up feeling rested and ready for my housework, which I look forward to with actual pleasure. I am certainly free of the rheumatism and can get about as well as I ever could. I am only too glad to say a good word for Tanlac, as I think it is perfectly grand."

battlefields are still coming into Paris.

Following the authenticated exposure of the dancing on Hartman's Willerkopf, comes evidence from Verdun that unscrupulous souvenir hunters have undermined the famous "trench of the bayonets," a spot where the tips of bayonets disclose tragedy of a mine explosion, where a company of French infantry was buried alive when standing upright in a trench.

Another trench had been dug at night alongside the place where the bayonets protrude, and the decorators of "France's most glorious tomb," which by an American gift is to be perpetuated as a national monument, have taken pieces of clothing and accoutrements from the skeletons of the heroes, who, upright in death, form the most gruesome relic to the glory of French arms.

The souvenirs thus obtained have been sold, it is charged, at high prices to tourists at Verdun.

GERMANY'S EYES U. S. TRADE

N. Y. Importing Firm Taking Orders for News Print Paper

Germany is once more angling for American trade. This was evidenced today when it was learned that a New York importing firm has announced that it is taking orders for German news print paper.

The seriousness of the news print paper shortage in the United States is giving German paper manufacturers an opportunity to make hay while the sun shines, and they are taking full advantage of it. Officials of the Department of Commerce and the Federal Trade Commission said yesterday that they had not been advised of the activities of German paper makers.

ARRANGES FOR FUNERAL BEFORE SEEKING DEATH

New York, Sept. 1.—After leaving a despondent note for her husband, Mrs. Ella Caldwell, 45 years old, took poison today and was found screaming with pain in her apartment at 394 St. Nicholas avenue. She was taken to Knickerbocker Hospital in a serious condition.

Reuben Caldwell, the husband, who lives at the same address, said he and his wife had been divorced. He said the note contained directions for the disposal of her effects, and ordered him to pay for the funeral expenses and forward the balance to a friend in Detroit.

Leopard Cannot Change Spots

Mr. Dodson, the "Liver Tone" Man, Tells the Treachery of Calomel.

Calomel loses you a day! You know what calomel is. It's mercury; quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It crashes into your bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

When you feel bilious, sluggish, constipated and all knocked out and believe you need a dose of dangerous calomel! Just remember that your druggist sells for a few cents a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, which is entirely vegetable and pleasant to take and is a perfect substitute for calomel. It is guaranteed to start your liver without stirring you up inside, and can not salivate.

Don't take calomel! It can not be trusted any more than a leopard or a wild-cat. Take Dodson's Liver Tone which straightens you right up and makes you feel fine. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and doesn't grime.

GOOD YEAR

WITH POMERENE

Leaving aside the question of "quotas," the cost of the campaign generally conducted by the Republican National Committee is not $3,000,000 as estimated by Hays, but $3,700,000 which is the total of the Hays budget and the requirements of the Congressional committee.

Upham, who spent most of the day on the witness stand, made several admissions that agreed with the statements of his chief the day before. He admitted, for instance, that the national committee had no power to prevent the leaders of States from soliciting campaign funds, despite their agreement to do so.

He further admitted that he was trying to raise "between $3,000,000 and $3,500,000," instead of limiting the revenue of the party to cover the $3,000,000 Hays budget. He did deny, however, that there was any basis for the charges made by Governor Cox that there existed a conspiracy on the part of the Republican leaders to raise a fund of $15,000,000 to "get an under hold on the Presidency."

In doing so he was efficiently assisted by the Republican members of the Senate committee, who gave him every opportunity to explain that the purpose of the Republican party was to "popularize campaign giving and secure as many stockholders in the party as possible."

Upham turned over to the committee a list of 30,000 contributors who had given from $1. to $2,000, and which contains the names of men identified with the most important financial and commercial enterprises in the country.

In describing the intricate process by which the finances of the Republican party are accomplished, he frequently admitted that it was his job to get all the money needed, and if the "quotas" called for were exceeded he would certainly take the money. He further assumed the responsibility for the "official bulletin" which urges Republican leaders "to get the money."

COME KISS ME, SHE SANG

ON STAGE, AND CHARLIE DID

New York, Sept. 1.—"Women," said Charlie Sacher Tuesday, "almost absolutely never mean what they say."

Charlie a large youth for his 19 years, went over the top of the foot lights last night at a vaudeville theatre here when a pretty young girl, billed as a "snappy singer, dancer, and talker," sang "Come to My Arms and Kiss Me."

Both stage hands the property man, stage carpenter, cashier, and the thunder sheet shaker rushed on stage to separate Charlie from the girl and finally succeeded. Several policemen arrested him and Magistrate Simms held him today in $500 bail for a Friday hearing.

BRITISH MINERS' VOTE STRIKE

London, Sept. 1.—A strike by the British coal miners seemingly was brought nearer today by a resolution passed by the "triple alliance," comprising the railway men, the transport workers and the miners, supporting the claims of the miners.

It was decided by the meeting to reassemble tomorrow to consider the further policy of the alliance.

The miners by a majority of 267,917 have voted in favor of a strike, it was announced officially today. There were 606,782 votes for the strike and 238,865 against.

ELEVATOR FALLS;

2 DEAD, 16 HURT

New York, Sept. 1.—Two men were killed and 16 persons injured, some of them seriously, when an elevator containing 18 passengers, fell ten stories yesterday during the home rush period, in a building at 215 Fourth avenue. The car jammed at the first floor, which prevented greater loss of life, fire department officials said than if it had crashed to the basement. The dead are Albert A. Caplan and Max Lauter, both employed in the building.

Officials investigating the accident said they believed the elevator cable snapped and that the balancing weights crashed through the top of the car.

The injured, chiefly men, suffered broken arms and legs. Firemen worked for nearly an hour with acetylene torches to release the bodies of dead after police had taken the injured out of the wreckage.

"EVE" HIDES IN BUSH

New York, Sept. 1.—It was bad enough when hubby forced her to play Eve the first time, when there was a bush handy, but the next time it was right in the public street, she alleges. So she's asking the judge for permission to resign permanently from these domestic theatricals.

According to the divorce petition of Mrs. Marie C. Gallagher, her husband, John C. Gallagher, thrust her outdoors, after tearing off her night clothes, while they were living in Bogota, N. J. She hid in a bush until her niece threw her some clothes from a second story window.

On July 23, she alleges, he gave an encore at their home in New York. Bushes don't grow in New York streets.

that he did not have the money with him to pay for it, but offered to make a deposit of $25 and come back later and get the ring.

While the clerk had turned her back it is supposed that the negro took the ring from the envelope in which it was placed and substituted a cheap imitation. He then asked the girl if they did not seal the envelopes in which rings were kept until the full amount was paid, and on being told that they did not he insisted on the envelope containing his ring being sealed.

Seeing that the ring had not been called for at the time specified Spiro yesterday opened the envelope to return the ring to its place in the store stock and found the imitation. The negro had given a fictitious address and there is no clue to him.

MAN IS CONVICTED OF ROBBING SWEETHEART

Camden, N. J., Sept. 1.—[This man took advantage of this girl, and after protesting his love for her took her money and skipped,] declared Assistant Prosecutor Straw, addressing Judge Kates at the trial without jury of William Linn on a charge of securing $8124 by false pretense from Miss Jennie Henry, of Paulsboro.

When Linn left Camden with another woman he and Miss Henry were engaged to be married. He was located in Cleveland, Ohio, and there arrested on Miss Henry's allegation that he had secured $8124 from her with the understanding that he was going to start business in Camden. A $4,000 truck which had been bought with some of the money was recovered and was sold for Miss Henry's benefit.

Linn contended that Miss Henry had given him the money and that she knew he was going to Cleveland. Judge Kates found him guilty of the charge and deferred sentence.

BABIES SATIRIZE MODERN TENDENCY

Asbury Park, N. J., Sept. 1.—The high cost of living and the increasing scantiness of women's attire were outstanding features of the thirtieth annual baby parade held here yesterday afternoon. More than 800 children participated in the parade and crowds estimated at 100,000 to 150,000 lined Ocean avenue to witness the parade.

Where America is drifting to in the way of dress for women was illustrated by two little paraders interpreting the styles, provided with nothing but a hairpin and a smile. One little parader had nothing on but a placard for a stomach with two great safety pins. Another had a clout of pink satin.

A boy had a barrel as his only apparel announcing that the high cost of living had driven him to it.

SUGAR PRICES CUT BY RETAIL DEALERS

Philadelphia, Sept. 1.—While sugar was yesterday reaching new low levels in Cuba, at the refineries and at the retail stores, wholesale dealers are loudly proclaiming the loss and in some cases bankruptcy, which they assert they face.

The price of raw Cuban sugar fell to 3 cents plus freight and duty. A leading New York refinery quoted 16 cents for fine granulated sugar, a cent under the quotation of other refineries. While this price-reducing was going on, retailers in this city materially cut their prices.

SEIZED 20 BARRELS OF WHISKY AT YORK

York, Pa., Sept. 1.—Twenty barrels of whisky, seized in the vicinity of Glen Rock en route from Baltimore to York, now repose in the Federal building in this city, and it is expected that several prosecutions will follow. As yet little is known about the affair, but it is said that a truck on which the liquor was being transported was intercepted by Federal agents and the driver, who was very drunk was unable or unwilling to give any information as to the ownership.

A Maryland license tag was on the truck, and now the Federal officers are trying to locate the owner of the truck.

PASSPORTS TO RUSSIA ASKED

For Socialists Plan to Study Conditions There

New York, Sept. 1.—Four representatives of the Socialist Party of America today applied for passports to Russia and to the Baltic States on an official party research mission to "study political and economic conditions under the soviet government." [The party comprised Algeron Lee, of the national executive committee of the party; Jas. O'Neal, associate editor of New York Call; Joseph E. Cohen, of Philadelphia; and Alexander Trachtenberg, a native of Odessa, Russia.

INGOMAR THEATER

"Full of Pep," the clever Metro melodramatic comedy will be the attraction at the Ingomar Theater today. The play is a gripping combination of love, adventure and intrigue in which Hale Hamilton is seen at his best.

It tells of a young American who helps to frustrate a South American intrigue but who was not proof against the lure of a dark eyed senorita. It is a story which justifies the title and is "full of pep."

RICHMOND THEATER

If you are looking for the unusual in photoplays, come to the Richmond Theatre tonight and see "The World and His Wife." A startling romantic drama, adapted from the stage play of the same name. Made by Cosmopolitan Productions for Paramount Artercraft.

IDLE HOUR THEATER

An all star cast including Pauline Starke, Miles Welch, George Stanley, Jack Curtis, William Dyer, Boris Karloff, James O'Neill and Billie Bennett, will be seen at the Idle Hour Theater Saturday in "The Courage of Marge O'Doone," by Jas. Oliver Curwood. The production was made under the direction of David Smith and is one of the most thrilling and spectacular features ever presented. It is the story of a man who braves the dangers of ice and snow to rescue a brave girl who is holding her enemies at bay with the aid of a trained bear. A real bear fight between two grizzlies is one of the big scenes of the film.

MUNITIONS BLOW UP
IN WRECK: 200 ESCAPE

Neenah, Wis., Sept. 1.—The Velvet Special, on the Soo Line, was derailed three miles from here yesterday.

The engineer was killed and the fireman injured. Two hundred passengers were shaken up but none seriously injured. The jar caused a lamp in the baggage car to overturn. The flames spread to a shipment of ammunition, which exploded. The fire spread to the sleeping coaches but passengers escaped.

WOMEN'S SILK SOX CAUSE OF LONDON PHONE SHORTAGE

London, Sept. 1.—Because of the vogue of silk stockings, business men in London cannot get telephones installed.

The silk is used for insulating telephone wires, and the shortage consequent upon women's hose demands is paralyzing new telephone business.

E. D. SMITH AHEAD
IN SOUTH CAROLINA

Columbia, S. C., Sept. 1.—Figures from 37 of the 48 counties in South Carolina compiled by the state in today's democratic primary show E. D. Smith leading three opponents for renomination for the United States Senate. The senator, on the face of the early returns, lacks only a few votes of having a majority of the ballots reported. The figures late last night were: E. D. Smith, 22,330; George Warren, 14,000; W. P. Pollock, 5,320, and W. C. Irby, 3,039.

PONZI HAS MILLION TO CREDIT IN BANK

Boston, Sept. 1.—Charles Ponzi still has $1,050,000 on deposit in the Hanover Trust Company, according to testimony given at the Ponzi receivership hearings today by Harry A. Chmielinski, president of the bank.

William S. McNary, treasurer and chairman of directors of the bank, testified that in the course of the rush on Ponzi he thwarted the wizard's efforts to obtain control by going out into the market and buying 150 shares in the bank.

REDS GAIN TOWNS

Soviet Claims Success in Heavy Fighting for Galician Cities

London, Sept. 1.—Russian Bolshevik forces, fighting against Polish forces north of Brest-Litovsk, have occupied a number of villages from 10 to 20 miles southeast of Bialystok, says a Moscow wireless, quoting an official Soviet statement issued there yesterday.

Heavy fighting, which is declared to be favorable to the Soviet armies, continues in the vicinity of Lemberg and Przemyśl, in Galicia, while in the Orlikov region of the Crimea the Bolsheviks have been successful.

Further north, near Vladimir (Volhynsk), Soviet troops have occupied the town Biez and a number of villages north of there. In the neighborhood of Brest-Litovsk, where the Bolsheviks claimed yesterday to have captured several towns from the Poles, only local fighting is going on, the statement declared.

MAYOR J. M. DUNCAN
ASSUMES DUTIES

In my election to the office of Mayor, as well as the responsibilities that devolve upon the incumbent of that high office.

In you, gentlemen of this council, I recognize the true representatives of the people who so honored me, and in you I expect to always find a reflection of the views and wishes of your constituents. It is my purpose, therefore, to seek from you a ready indication of the wishes of the majority. Outspoken frankness in all of your future official expressions is requested and to this end I appear before you at this time to sound the keynote of my administration which I hope to make both vigorous and progressive. Each of you, I am confident is anxious to see our city progress along lines consistent with our ability in an effort to place it in the position to which it is unquestionably entitled. Harmony in action without misunderstanding of purpose can properly be associated with our efforts towards progression. I, therefore, gentlemen, request at your hands your co-operation, not only in the way of acceding to my requests or concurring in my views in which the interests of the city shall always be conscientiously considered, but to advise me as well.

As chief executive of this city I realize that my powers of understanding are limited as are those of other men, and I, therefore, trust that you will help me to conduct the affairs of my office in such a manner that it will rebound to the credit of our official circle and to the benefit of all the citizens whom we represent and with such willingness on your part I believe that I have the right to ask of you the acceptance of certain suggestions which I shall have the privilege of making to you in the near future. To outline today each of these matters specifically would be an imposition upon you, gentlemen, and for that reason I leave these suggestions for our future and fuller consideration.

Might I ask all the appointees to such committee assignment his vigorous investigation of each subject presented, and of each committee a prompt and definite report on matters referred to them? May I also ask that the upper and lower boards seek rather than evade the motives of each individual member so that misunderstanding cannot possibly arise, but on the contrary our City shall receive the full benefit of the harmonious co-operation of all.

My time and my assistance is always at your disposal and I trust that all questions which may arise you will feel free to discuss with me if you so desire, and should I not be found in my office in the City Hall you will have no difficulty in locating me at my place of business. My purpose is to serve you gentlemen and the one who suffers from a bad back and distressing urinary disorders. Alexandria people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Be guided by their experience.

Mrs. Chas. Cook, 410 Queen St., Alexandria, says: "After an attack of the 'flu' my kidneys were left in bad shape. My back pained me so I was in misery all the time. It seemed as though a dagger were being thrust into my kidneys. I could get no rest at night. Mornings I would be so tired and worn out I would feel like giving up. A friend saw what condition I was in and told me what a wonderful remedy Doan's Kidney Pills are. I sent to Creighton's Drug Store for some. Doan's fixed me up all right in a short time. The pains all left me and before long I was entirely cured. It was Doan's Kidney Pills and nothing else that did it." Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Cook had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.
